IMPORTANT NOTICE

TRIGGER WARNING:

THIS REPORT CONTAINS EXTREMELY SENSITIVE AND DISTURBING CONTENT RELATED TO ANTISEMITISM
AND THE HOLOCAUST.

Support This Research:

This research is fully independent. I am not affiliated with any political group or community organisation. I believe this independence is important and adds to the integrity of the work.

Since 1990, I have been researching the conflicts involving Israel and fighting the delegitimisation campaign since 2000. For several years I have also been combatting rising antisemitism both on the far-right and far-left.

The work can and does make a difference. I was recently named by the Algemeiner as one of their 'J100', a list of the top 100 Jews worldwide, 'positively influencing Jewish life'.<sup>1</sup>

The findings of my research have been covered in media across the globe.

The support I receive from those who understand the importance of the work, makes much of what I do possible. I simply could not do it without their kind and generous assistance.

The delegitimisation campaign against Israel and the rise of antisemitism are linked. I firmly believe we must expose it and face it down. We *HAVE TO* be there to witness, report, expose and fight it.

If you can, please consider donating towards the ongoing research. Either a single amount or, if you can, a monthly contribution. Every amount is greatly appreciated. Research such as this is intensive, and at times expensive. We must shine a light into the shadows.

Support can be given via the donation button on my website: <http://www.david-collier.com/>

A DEFINITION OF ANTISEMITISM

This research sets the bar for antisemitism unnaturally high. Tolerance levels were raised to avoid deflection arguments over 'criticism of Israel'. This approach is identical to the position taken in similar research into the English PSC and Scottish PSC in 2017 and Palestine Live in 2018<sup>2</sup>.

Had the definition included calling Israel a 'Nazi' state, almost every person that was identified would fail. In more direct language, according to the recently adopted UK Government definition of antisemitism (the IHRA definition), the clear majority of anti-Israel activists identified display blatantly antisemitic views<sup>3</sup>.

This research is therefore disassociated from the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Therefore, almost any reference to Israel's treatment of the Palestinians, however antisemitic, is ignored. The research ignored talk of Israel committing genocide, of being as bad or worse than the Nazis and all manner of other distortions.

Another visible element that was not used was the application of individual acts to label the actions of the state. So rather than the state being the vehicle through which people are, for better or worse, enabled through their freedom, the state of Israel becomes shackled and vilified through the actions of its most extreme citizens, the implication being that something is 'genetically' wrong with the state. England, placed into a similar test tube, would become a nation that rapes and kills women because of Peter Sutcliffe.

What has been highlighted in this research consists of three central elements:

- Holocaust denial/revisionism
- The mutation of Israel into a controlling global Jew (conspiracy theory)
- Fixation on Jews, classic antisemitic tropes

I seek to show that hard-core antisemitism is rampant in anti-Zionist activity. As the Scottish Sunday Times pointed out following the release of my report into the SPSC in July 2017, 'you would need to work hard at it' to be included in the research<sup>4</sup>.

Jenny Tonge - the Baroness

Jenny Tonge is a member of the House of Lords. Tonge is a key anti-Israel activist, but for years has been faced with allegations of extremism and antisemitism. In 2004 she had stated that she 'might consider becoming a suicide bomber if she were Palestinian'. In the UK such remarks are clearly rewarded and a year later, Tonge was made a life peer in the House of Lords. By 2006 she was speaking about the western world being the 'grips of the Israeli lobby'. In 2010, an online newspaper of which Jenny Tonge was a Patron, made outrageous claims about an Israeli team sent to help earthquake victims in Haiti 'harvesting organs'. A week later Tonge suggested Israel should set up an 'independent inquiry' to investigate these claims. As a result she was sacked from her position as the Liberal Democrats health spokesperson.

In 2012, blogger Richard Millett recorded Tonge commenting that Israel 'would not be there forever'. This led to her resignation from the Liberal Democrats whip. In 2016, I attended an event with Tonge, in which several attendees made antisemitic remarks. My report led to Tonge's final departure from the Liberal Democrats. Since 2016 she has been sitting as an Independent.

In March of 2018, I exposed Jenny Tonge as one of the political figures actively posting in a secret Facebook Group called Palestine Live. A group swimming in antisemitism. This week, following the horrific attack on a synagogue in Pittsburgh, Jenny Tonge created a post on Facebook that blamed Israeli actions for the attack:

I saw the post, published it via Twitter, it went viral and it was soon picked up by several major news outlets. This latest antisemitic incident has led to her resigning her position as a Patron of the Palestine Solidarity Campaign.

The basics

As someone who spends time researching antisemitism within anti-Israel activism, I frequently come across Jenny Tonge's activity online. What I have known for a long time, is that many of the supporters she regularly interacts with are hard-core antisemites. I pointed this out in my report on Palestine Live, and even to this day, Tonge has remained a member of the group:

Jenny Tonge

Added by Eleanne Green on 12 January 2014
Independent peer at House of Lords

One of the key elements of my research is not to simply suggest 'some' people are antisemitic, but rather to quantify the problem. Highlighting that 40% of people in a crowd are antisemitic (as with a demonstration of the Palestinian Solidarity Campaign) or even 50% (a demo by the Scottish Palestine Solidarity Campaign) makes an important statement about the level of antisemitism in anti-Israel activity.

To do this I use an enclosed environment, where I can identify the anti-Israel activists involved, and then use their social media activity to check whether they promote antisemitic ideologies. Jenny Tonge's resignation from the PSC provided a good opportunity. As is always the case with this type of research, I make no attempt to identify the people offline. The assumption is that these accounts are real and they are who they say they are. Additionally, I do not base the identification of antisemitism on the IHRA definition. The bar for antisemitism has been set unnaturally high and deflections over Israel cannot be used against it (this report is available for download and contains a full explanation about the *definition* of antisemitism used).

Jenny Tonge - the resignation post

Following her resignation from the PSC, Jenny Tonge, made an announcement on Facebook. This is the original post:

There were 68 comments made on this thread (and a few comments had responses). I wanted to look at those people who made comments. This is the Facebook account of a sitting member of the House of Lords. Many of the people who responded can be seen on her threads all the time. Given her position, you would expect the majority of those exchanging views with her, not to be racists. As I have noticed in my years of research, with Jenny this is simply not the case. For whatever reason, whenever Jenny Tonge interacts online, hard-core antisemites are always present. I wanted to use this opportunity to highlight just how high the concentration levels are.

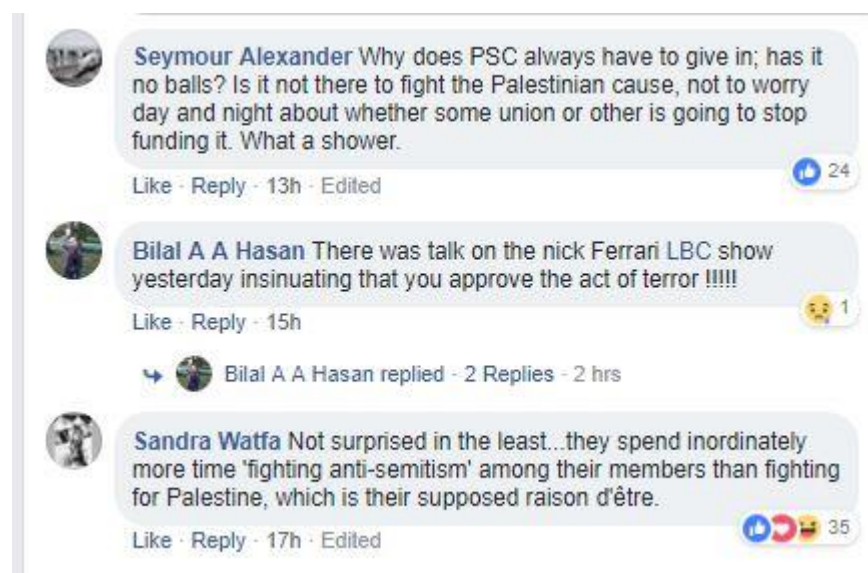

At the time I took the image, I identified seventy-four people who interacted with the thread. To confirm these were not casual observers, I cross-referenced with Jenny Tonge's Facebook friend list. Of the seventy-four posters, seventy-one of them (96%) are Facebook friends.

As is always the case, privacy issues hinder a comprehensive check of everybody who had responded. Of the seventy-four, sixteen had too little public activity to investigate. Some of these (five) are also members of Palestine Live but still had to be discounted from this investigation. One comment was left by someone who opposes her. This left a sample of fifty-seven Facebook accounts to look at. How many of these accounts share antisemitic images? That was the question.

In the antisemitic swamp with Jenny Tonge - part one

*These images are not from the thread, there are from the social media activity of those who responded*.

These were the first three people on the list:

Seymour Alexander has for years acted as a photographer for the Palestine Solidarity Campaign. He also posts conspiracy theories:

Bilal Hasan, and the first of far too many posts calling the Holocaust a 'hoax':

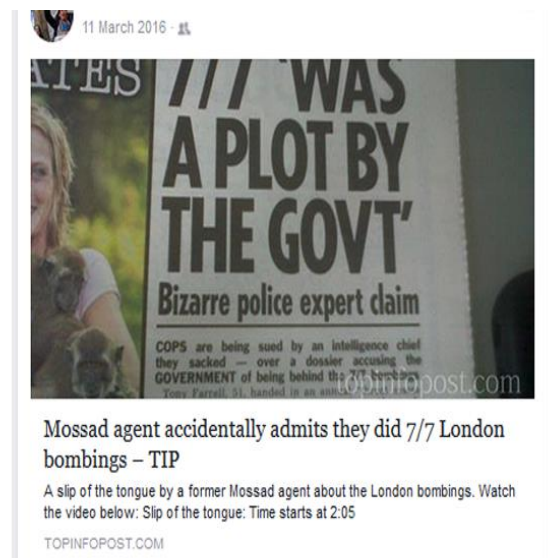

Sandra Watfa from the Islamic activist group InMinds. Sandra, who frequently posts antisemitic images, is often on London's streets protesting against those who trade with the Jewish state. We can start with Holocaust denial:

Two more posts just to remove any doubt:

Not everyone is going to be on the same page on every issue. I don't look at the mans past. If you looked at my past, you probably would smear me. He does say some good things. My wife and I lost 13 friends and colleagues between us on 9/11. Most of them worked for my wife's company, which had many losses. It was a horrible day- a nightmare, and the weeks and months after were very difficult. I was having breakfast this morning at a diner and on the TV was the usual reading of the names of those lost. It affected me differently this year. Yes, of course, we suffered. But who has been suffering ever since, because of this false flag operation that justified global American and Zionist aggression in so many places in the name of "fighting terrorism"? I do not want to forget the friends we lost, but this year instead of reading their names I would like to see a televised reading of all the names of those lost in Afghanistan and Iraq and Palestine and Lebanon and Yemen and Somalia and Libya and Pakistan and Syria. Did I get them all? Probably not. And to read all the names would not take a morning as it does in the reading of the names of the 9/11 dead. It would take weeks, a fucking month, more. Get started.

Pat Mc Ginley The US should mark the day by launching a new investigation into the facts which led to the horrific events on 9/11. The conclusions of the 9/11 Commission Report are a travesty of justice for the victims of 9/11 and the victims of the so-called War On Terror which were attributed to the events on 9/11. Plus, it has allowed the evil people behind 9/11 to evade justice. The most blatantly absurd finding in the official report is the collapse of World Tower 7 - in free-fall time, due to 'office fires'. It's an utter impossibility for any steel-framed building to collapse in free-fall time. Grenfell Tower in London was completely engulfed in flames for many hours and is still standing because it's a steel-framed building. Like the truth about the JFK assassination, the truth about 9/11 is being covered up by the puppet media of the ruling elites. Utterly disgusting, shameful and intolerable in any so-called 'democracy'!

In the antisemitic swamp with Jenny Tonge - part four

An additional five of the fifty-seven posters have not been listed as having shared antisemitic posts online but have been set aside.

Mick Napier. Napier is the head of the Scottish Palestine Solidarity Campaign. As my own research has shown, his movement is riddled with antisemitism. Just recently he introduced a new group of 'anti-Zionist Jews' who were fronted by someone who has shared Jewish conspiracy and Holocaust denial posts.

Karl Sabbagh owns a publishing house. Last year he published a book full of antisemitic conspiracy theory.

Alan Maddison spent much of last year producing distorted statistics that were designed to deflect from accusations of antisemitism. Even though he was a member of Palestine Live and was able to see the evidence himself, he set out to deny the existence of antisemitism in Palestine Live. Absurdly he seemed to suggest that Israel as ISIS, Mossad 9/11 conspiracy and Rothschild Zionist conspiracy is *NOT* antisemitic because of the use of the word Zionist instead of Jew:

Abbas Ali is chair of InMinds. A group that often puts antisemites on the streets (two examples are above). Additionally, Ali openly supports Hezbollah, a genocidal antisemitic organisation. Their military wing is proscribed in the UK. Ali supports the 'resistance'. This is what Ali said of the Hezbollah leader Nasrallah:

Tony Greenstein has been expelled from Labour, has a fetish for ties between Jews and Hitler's Germany and is widely regarded as an antisemite. He is at the head of the movement 'Labour against the Witch Hunt'. The argument that a Jewish person cannot be antisemitic is deeply flawed. Many Jewish people, including most of the anti-Zionist Jews in the Labour Party, regard Gilad Atzmon and Paul Eisen as antisemites. It seems odd that they deny the possibility when they themselves believe in it.

The statistics

Thirty-six of the fifty-seven accounts have shared hard-core antisemitic material. Another five accounts are set aside as 'special cases'.

The shame of the Baroness

63% of posters were found to have shared antisemitic material. When we include those who are responsible for putting antisemitism onto the streets, or helping to spread it, then we reach 72%. These are her Facebook friends. Even for me, with years of research behind me, these concentration levels are as high, if not higher than I have experienced before. This on the social media account of a member of the House of Lords.

These levels reinforce the underlying issue with antisemitism in anti-Israel activity. Whether Jenny Tonge is an antisemite herself is an irrelevance. What is certain is that she is surrounded by it. Antisemites are attracted to her presence and form the main basis of her visible support.

How can Jenny Tonge not be aware, after all this time, that so many of these people swarming around her social media pages have deep issues with Jewish people? Far too many of these posters are attracted to Holocaust Denial, and a support for ideologies of the hard-right. In the images above we have support for David Duke, Trevor Labonte, Gilad Atzmon and there is even a link to the white nationalist, neo-Nazi website Renegade Tribune. How many Holocaust deniers, how many people sharing white supremacist material, do we need on ONE THREAD, before we can call them 'far-right racists'? More to the point, how can Jenny Tonge swim in this antisemitic swamp every day and not realise that there is a problem she needs to address?

Perhaps the time has come for other members of the House of Lords to force her hand.
