Opening Statement: Context and Accuracy

War is the worst of all worlds. Innocent people lose their lives in war, and every life lost is a family destroyed. The war in Gaza is the worst type of war, with Hamas deliberately hiding behind (or under) civilians and using bodies of dead civilians as part of a desired military strategy.

This report deals with claims that 70- 107 journalists in Gaza (depending on which list you follow) have been killed during this conflict. The subject is therefore sensitive, depressing and distressing.

There is no attempt here to be dismissive of any innocent life lost in war. This is a research exercise that sets out to challenge lies. The lie is that Israel has targeted journalists so as to silence them – or has killed a disproportionate number of journalists (in comparison with other wars).

The first casualty of war is the truth. It is therefore vital to seek out and challenge those spreading lies as part of their propaganda campaign. This makes it necessary to deal with the subject matter, however uncomfortable it may be.

The content included in this research deals with terrorism and tragedy. Images have not been included for shock value – but if necessary have been used to provide evidence. There are lots of images showing people celebrating and glorifying the murder of innocent civilians. There is also one graphic image related to a massacre on October 7. This was all necessary.

This report shows that the claim Israel has been targeting journalists to silence them is an unsupportable and disgraceful fiction. The report does not replace one fiction with another. It has no theory of its own and states nothing beyond those facts that speak for themselves.

Please note the names are Arabic – this creates inconsistencies across different platforms. Therefore when relying on other sources, the same person can have his name spelt in slightly different ways throughout the report.

Finally, the report contains 100s of footnotes and there are 1000s of individual points. A lot of time was spent checking and rechecking accuracy. Much of the original material was in Arabic. Because not all information is publicly available it is likely the report may contain a small number of unintended and minor (and inconsequential) errors. These may be searched out (or invented) by detractors and used to try to discredit the report. The mountain of evidence contained below is overwhelming and minor inaccuracies (invented or real) will not change the overall picture it paints.

Summary Points

- Since October 7 as part of its media war, Hamas has driven propaganda narratives falsely suggesting Israel is targeting journalists while reporting on the Gaza/Israel conflict.
- Many NGOs, and popular media outlets have repeated or shared these false claims, which – if true – would be a damning indictment of any democratic state.
- The research below was based on a thorough online search for the 107 names presented as Palestinian journalists allegedly killed by the IDF since the start of the Gaza/Israel conflict.
- The research examined lists provided by Hamas and the NGO, 'Committee to Protect Journalists' (CPJ) - 70 names on the Hamas list are also on the list presented by the CPJ.
- During the research, social media accounts for 100 of the 107 named journalists were identified, representing 93% of the 107 journalists listed.
- The Hamas list was quickly found to be full of errors, containing many Hamas / Islamic Jihad members along with others who are not connected to news gathering or reporting.
- On the CPJ list, 35 of the 70 named journalists (50%) are openly associated with proscribed terror groups and are therefore active parts of terror organisations at war with Israel.
- Approximately 19 (27%) others on the CPJ list do not seem to be "journalists" at all. A freelance graphic designer who works for a PR company, a builder, the unemployed, someone whose father runs a sports club, and administrative employees of media companies, are examples of people listed as journalists by the CPJ.
- The CPJ reports are full of errors and misplaced assumptions. The research is sloppy, citations do not support statements, and the CPJ appear to work backwards (an assumption that a person named by Hamas is a journalist unless proven otherwise). The CPJ do not appear to have even bothered to look at publicly available social media accounts before making increasingly outrageous statements against Israel.
- Many of those listed died at home (approximately 70/107 -63% or CPJ 45/70 -68%), some visibly in strikes on Hamas leadership settings – not in the field. This is of vital importance when considering the reason for their death. For example, an employee of an Islamic Jihad channel is included even though he died in the house of a top Islamic Jihad commander.
- The CPJ's methodology and research appears to be consistently amateurish and significantly compromised.
- Of those with publicly available social media accounts at least 79% promoted and celebrated terrorism and the death of innocent civilians (evidence contained below).
- The CPJ have consistently broken its own rulebook to include people it shouldn't have.
- Given the overwhelming support for terrorist atrocities against innocent Jewish civilians, it is fair to conclude that these people are not impartial, nor there to just 'report the news'.
- Each of the 54 people captured in the journalist directory on p42 would face arrest in almost every country in the west for their support of radical Islamic terrorism. It is therefore misleading, and inaccurate for western media outlets to refer to them as 'journalists'.
- If mainstream media figures consider these people to be journalists – and therefore have been relying on evidence they (or those like them) provide – it suggests our mainstream media is parroting the propaganda of proscribed terrorist groups and their supporters, whether unwittingly or actively.

Introduction

Gaza is controlled by Islamic fundamentalists who for almost two decades have turned the Gaza Strip into a fortress. Since 2006 Gaza's education system has been shaped to produce terrorists or terrorist sympathisers. People who achieve positions of influence are highly likely to have Hamas family associations. Hamas run and rule Gaza.

Gaza is also a clan-based society. Families can be large, with privilege and affiliation often carrying throughout the clan.<sup>1 2</sup> The head of the clan can carry real influence and power. The Madhoun family is a good example. Their official FB page has 11,000 followers (remember it is a family page).<sup>3</sup> The head of the family is Dr Mohamed Ibrahim Almadhoun – a member of the Hamas inner circle.<sup>4</sup>

Anyone who approaches an analysis of events within Gazan society with a western, Christian mindset will misunderstand almost everything that is happening.

Since Israel set out to remove Hamas from power following the Hamas October 7th 2023 atrocities, a concerted campaign to vilify Israel has taken place. Israel has been accused of everything from deliberately targeting children to genocide.

A key part of this campaign, and one that has played out well in the media, has been the charge that the Israeli Defence Forces (IDF) have been deliberately targeting journalists in Gaza, presumably to imply that Israel is trying to quash reporting on events.

Hamas and western NGOs have been compiling lists of people they claim were 'journalists' who have died since October 7. Hamas do it as a PR exercise. For NGOs such as the 'Committee to Protect Journalists' (CPJ) it is their raison d'être.<sup>5</sup>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/2151243934999560/>

<sup>3</sup> The page for this Almadhoun family has 11,000 followers <https://www.facebook.com/elmadhounps>

Two key lists provide ammunition for anti-Israel activists. The propaganda list from the Gaza Government Media Office and rubber stamped by the Palestine Journalists Syndicate (103 -107 names) and the 'refined' list from the CPJ, (70 names).<sup>6 7 8</sup>

Using a cut-off date of 04 Jan 2024, 107 names were collected.<sup>9 10 11 12</sup> A forensic search for the 'journalists' was conducted online, and the return was highly successful. Through using a variety of OSINT tools, social media accounts of 100 (93%) of those named were identified.

It came as little surprise to find the Hamas / PJS list is a pyramid of fictions built upon three key areas:

- Dozens of those named work directly for Islamic Jihad or Hamas controlled outlets.
- Family members of top Hamas targets have been included.<sup>13</sup>
- Anyone who works (or has ever worked) in PR, Advertising, or has ever held a camera, has been added to the list.

Most of the journalists died at home. This raises the issue of why they are included in a list of journalists as if they died in the field. One such case is Hazifa Al-Najjar who was killed on 29 October.

This is an image from his grandfather's funeral in April 2017. The person carrying his grandfather's body is none other than Ismail Haniyeh – the Hamas leader.<sup>14</sup>

The family has deep ties to the Hamas leadership. This has nothing to do with journalism.

There are also numerous duplicates. For example, Mustafa Al Naqib and Rajab Naqib (numbers 9 and 19 on the list of the PJS) are shown as the same person.<sup>15 16</sup> Huthaifa Lulu (number 71 and 98) are also the same person.

The Hamas /PJS list is so absurd that those who rely on it – such as the Journalists Support Committee include an image of a UAE vlogger who posted a fake video as one of the ‘dead journalists’.<sup>17 18 19</sup>

<sup>15</sup> <https://www.pjs.ps/?p=2766> Rajab did have a brother Mustafa, but he worked as assistant teacher, not in media. <https://www.facebook.com/Mostafa.moh.alnaakeeb>

Hani Almadhoun worked for Al Aqsa TV which is a media face of the Hamas terror group. He died at home on 21 October. His name appears on several of the lists.

His FB account is private, his son Ahmed, who died alongside him has a more open FB profile.<sup>20 21</sup> Alongside images of Ahmed's Hamas car keyring, are numerous photos of Hamas fighters.

Other family members appear equally as enthralled with Hamas.<sup>22</sup>

These Palestinian lists are blatantly exaggerated and badly put together. The research behind them is so transparently weak (the inclusion of so many non-media people), that it is assumed that most people understand the Hamas figures are not real. In addition, those so deeply lost that they are promoting the Hamas figures will not be dissuaded by any amount of evidence.

In western media, most outlets are promoting the statements and figures published by the Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ).

Wikipedia is also using the CPJ figures as the backbone for its own pages on the issue.<sup>23 24</sup> The CPJ list of journalists was therefore considered a better subject for this research. Focusing on the Hamas numbers would allow those like the CPJ to still suggest their own figures are better refined and more reliable. Researching and exposing potential flaws in the CPJ research effectively kills two birds with one stone.

The American NGO claims the list is based on deep investigation, cross referencing multiple sources and 'rigorous' research.<sup>25</sup> The CPJ has even produced an interactive map with details about when and how the journalists were killed.

Yet since the outbreak of war, the CPJ has been engaging in ever more outlandish and bombastic claims - culminating in this recent statement which argues that more journalists have been killed in the Israel – Gaza war than 'have ever been killed in a single country over an entire year'.

An outrageous statement that is demonstrably untrue.<sup>26 27</sup>

The CPJ list, and the accusations they have made from them, are used by global media outlets as a basis for demonising Israel across the mainstream.

This is Alex Crawford, a Sky News Special Correspondent, repeating the CPJ claim.<sup>28</sup>

There have been conflicts in which millions of people have been wiped out. Yemen, Iraq, South Sudan, and the DRC are just a few recent examples <https://www.britannica.com/list/8-deadliest-wars-of-the-21st-century> Were there virtually no media staffers living in Hiroshima or Nagasaki? And finally, would the CPJ really like to wager that in 1944 in Auschwitz – less than 100 of the 100,000s of Hungarian Jews the Nazis murdered in just a few weeks worked in media. <https://www.yadvashem.org/holocaust/about/fate-of-jews/hungary.html>

This claim is so serious – that a democratic state was willingly mass killing journalists for merely doing their jobs- that it provided the motivation for conducting the research detailed on the following pages.

The list presented by the CPJ was analysed to see if the story stood up to closer inspection. As will be seen on the following pages it didn't, and every outlet promoting this story is spinning fake news to its audience.

It is also worth remembering that everything that follows was publicly available information. Any media outlet or NGO could have easily uncovered the truth. Yet not a single one of them did. Most of them willingly chose to help to spread the lies.

The Committee to Protect Journalists

The Committee to Protect Journalists presents a list of 'Journalist casualties' in the Gaza war. These are published on its website alongside detail relating to each of the named journalists.<sup>31</sup> The names can also be found as one of the markers on the numbered CPJ interactive map.<sup>32</sup>

There is a note to suggest that names on the list may not appear in the official CPJ 'database' until 'further investigations' have been undertaken, but as all the names already appear in the database it can be assumed that all these incidents passed the CPJ validity test.<sup>33</sup>

According to the CPJ there were 60 Palestinian journalists and 10 media workers killed. In many public CPJ statements they refer to all 70 of them as journalists.<sup>34</sup>

There are immediate concerns about the presentation of CPJ data. For example, all of the journalists are listed as having died on a dangerous assignment.

Mohammad Balousha	Palestine Today	October 17, 2023	Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territory	Dangerous Assignment
Issam Bhar	Al-Aqsa TV	October 17, 2023	Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territory	Dangerous Assignment
Abdulahdi Habib	Al-Manara News Agency, HQ News Agency	October 16, 2023	Israel and the Occupied Palestinian Territory	Dangerous Assignment

This is not true. All three of the examples died at home.<sup>35 36 37</sup> They were not active in the field at the time and not on a 'dangerous assignment'. The true circumstances may still be hidden by the fog of war, but they were not covering stories when they died. This is seriously misleading from the CPJ.

It should also be noted that two of the three visible examples, Mohammed Balousha and Issam Bhar both worked for proscribed terrorist groups. Palestine Today is a propaganda outfit for Islamic Jihad.<sup>38 39 40</sup> Al Aqsa TV is the public face of Hamas.<sup>41</sup> But more on that later.

The case of Assaad Shamalkh

Things only got worse when the CPJ listings were rigorously analysed for accuracy.

Assad Shamalkh died on October 8. CPJ refer to him as a 'freelance journalist'. In the listing CPJ provide two sources for the information they present, the Legal Agenda and BBC Arabic.<sup>42 43 44</sup>

October 8, 2023

Assaad Shamlakh

Shamlakh, a freelance journalist, was killed along with nine members of his family in an Israeli airstrike on their home in Sheikh Ijlin, a neighborhood in the southern Gaza Strip, according to the Beirut-based advocacy group The Legal Agenda and BBC Arabic.

Neither of the sources referenced by the CPJ mention that Shamlakh was a freelance journalist. CPJ clearly got it elsewhere. Only the PJS (based on the Hamas list) call him a freelancer – but they are not cited in this case.<sup>45</sup>

Shamalkh (as will be shown in greater detail in the directory section below), was a great supporter of terrorism against innocent Israeli civilians.

In this post he celebrates a terrorist attack at the Jerusalem bus station – posted early morning 23 November 2022.<sup>47 48</sup>

But his brother Muhammad Nasser Shamlakh (who was also killed in the attack<sup>49</sup>) recently posted these images on his own FB page.<sup>50</sup>

Two images have the holders of the weapons hidden, but there is an earlier image from 2019 which does show his face.

We have no sign of specific factional affiliation – nor do we know how many of the brothers were involved. But it is now logical to suggest that a terrorist faction had its badge on this family address.

It gets worse. The CPJ appear to artificially inflate the depth of the source material. In the Hassan Farajallah example, they cite the PJS and the International Federation of Journalists as sources.<sup>51</sup>

December 3, 2023

Hassan Farajallah

Farajallah, who held a senior position for the Hamas-affiliated Al-Quds TV, was killed in an Israeli bombardment in the Gaza Strip, according to the Palestinian Journalists' Syndicate and the International Federation of Journalists.

But when we follow the link to the IFJ website to see where they get the evidence on Hassan Farajallah from – they are also relying on the PJS.<sup>52</sup>

On 3 December, PJS confirmed the killing of Al Quds TV executive Hassan Farajallah, who was killed in an Israeli bombardment in the Gaza Strip.

Which means there is one source – not two. This entire story rests on the PJS – who are rubber stamping almost everything the Hamas led Gaza groups are saying. Which means the CPJ are being misleading. Worthwhile noting again that Hassan Farajallah worked for Al Aqsa TV (Hamas).

False positives

Time after time serious problems were found with the CPJ citations and sourcing. This is the case of Mohammed Balusha who died at home on 17 October. This is the entry on the CPJ website.<sup>53</sup>

October 17, 2023

Mohammad Balousha

Balousha, a journalist and the administrative and financial manager of the local media channel "Palestine Today" office in Gaza, was killed in an Israeli airstrike on the Al-Saftawi neighborhood in northern Gaza, reported Anadolu news agency and The Guardian.

The facts included here:

- Mohammad Balousha was a journalist and admin / financial manager at Palestine Today
- He was killed in the Al Saftawi neighbourhood in Northern Gaza,

Two sources are cited – Anadolu Agency and the Guardian. These are the entries from those sources:

Andalu:<sup>54</sup>

Sources told Anadolu that journalist Mohammad Balousha, who worked with local news website "Palestine Today," was killed in an Israeli airstrike on Al-Saftawi neighborhood in northern Gaza.

Guardian:<sup>55</sup>

A 12th Palestinian journalist has been reportedly killed by an Israeli airstrike since it began its retaliatory bombing campaign. Mohammad Balousha, who worked for Palestine Today, was in the al-Saftawi neighbourhood in northern Gaza. On Sunday the Palestinian Journalists Syndicate said 11 journalists had been killed. Israel's military has said it is Neither divulge where the information came from but they both appear to be relying on the same primary source. Which means the CPJ is puffing up its references again.

Worse still, neither contain the information about Balousha being 'a journalist and an administrative and financial manager'. This time the PJS announcement does not carry it either.<sup>56</sup> So not only do CPJ appear to be artificially inflating source material – it is also hiding sources it is actually using.

The primary source appears to be Palestine Today, The channel run by Islamic Jihad.<sup>57 58 59</sup>

The journalist, administrative and financial director of the Palestine TV office, was martyred today in Gaza with his family, Muhammad Baalousha "Abu Jamil," after the occupation aircraft targeted his house in the Al-Saftawi neighborhood in the northern Gaza Strip at dawn today

The Palestine Today piece contains all the information the CPJ carried. It looks like CPJ are using Hamas or IJ sources and then trying to find other sources to make themselves look more professional.

But relying on proscribed terrorist groups can lead to serious errors. This next Facebook post was from a colleague of Balousha mourning his death. This was posted by a Journalist named Muthanna

Al-Najjar.<sup>60</sup> The difference is stark. Al-Najjar states Balousha was a financial and administrative director but makes no reference at all to him being a journalist.

And here is his cousin two years ago congratulating him on passing his exams.<sup>61</sup>

It looks like the IJ outlet Palestine Today has pushed a lie about Balousha being a journalist to puff up 'journalist deaths' and the CPJ dutifully added him to their list.

And this is a key problem. Hamas control the information flow coming out of Gaza – and one way or another all roads lead back to the PR machines of radical Islamic terror organisations. The CPJ data is heavily reliant on groups determined to exaggerate numbers and mislead. Given so many of the social media profiles were open for investigation, it appears the CPJ have simply not bothered – which questions their motivations, intent, and professionalism.

Time and time again we see these issues repeating themselves. The entry for Issam Bhar relies on two sources. The first (Shorouk News) is nothing but a list of journalists without details, while the other (TRT Arabia) relies solely on Al Aqsa (Hamas) TV.<sup>62</sup> The entry for Mohammed Ali relies on the PJS and 'Al Dostor' – who in turn rely on PJS.

The list for Abdul Hadi Habib claims he works for Manara news (based on the PJS listing) but Abdul Hadi Habib worked for UNRWA in their digital education department.<sup>63</sup> His FB page says he USED TO WORK for Manara News.

These sloppy errors also mean there are many people on the list who simply should not be there.

The CPJ list Mohammad Khair al-Din as a journalist. A simple search on his own FB page shows that he refers to himself as a blacksmith / decorator – and 100s of images on the site are related to his trade.<sup>64 65</sup>

He is described as a journalist by the Palestinian Journalist Syndicate.<sup>66 67</sup>

The CPJ cite PJS in over 40 of their listings. They also cite others, such as the International Federation of Journalists (8 times) who rely heavily on the PJS as well. Numerous sources they cite rely solely on the PJS. We have seen that they sometimes rely on PJS listings and don't even cite them. This is important because in the explanation of their method, they state they seek two sources to confirm a listing.<sup>68</sup>

Our priority is to update the casualty listings as soon as a journalist's death is confirmed by at least two sources, circumstances of their deaths before we enter their names into our database. This means there is sometimes a time lag between the time a journalist is killed and the time their name is entered into the database. The casualty report contains the most up-to-date information.

It is just not true. Their list is all smoke and mirrors.

They also break their own rule book time after time. Salma Mkhimer is on the CPJ list (number 26)

Salma Mkhaimer, a freelance journalist, was killed alongside her child in an Israeli airstrike in Rafah city in the southern Gaza Strip, according to the Palestinian Journalists' Syndicate and the independent Egyptian online newspaper Mada Masr.

The CPJ cite two sources, one of course being the PJS. This is just lazy reporting. Mkhaimer was married and lived with her husband in Jordan. She was just visiting family in Gaza and became caught by the conflict.<sup>69 70 71</sup> She was not working she was visiting relatives.

Yaquub al Barsh is listed by the CPJ (number 44 on their list) as a ‘vital media support worker’. Al-Barsh comes from a very privileged family.

His father, an ‘entrepreneur’ owns and runs a local sports team (Naama). His father is in the centre, Yaquub is on the right.<sup>72 73</sup>

His grandfather is a ‘politician’.<sup>74</sup> The sports club has a radio station – which is one of the things Yaquub has been handling. Naama Radio stopped transmitting at the outbreak of the war, and even the Telegram channel posted nothing throughout November. It is a radio tied to a sports club.

CPJ are only meant to include journalists killed in ‘work-related’ scenarios. People like AL-Barsh should not be on the CPJ list. The inclusion of those like Mkhaimer and al-Barsh suggest that like Hamas, CPJ are trying to puff up the numbers.

committed as work-related only when it appears certain that a journalist was murdered in direct reprisal for his or her work; in combat or crossfire; or while carrying out a dangerous assignment. Cases involving unclear motives, but with a potential link to journalism, are classified as “unconfirmed” and CPJ continues to investigate. The “unconfirmed” category does not include journalists who are killed in accidents or other incidents where the journalist was not on assignment and there is no evidence to suggest the journalist was the target.

The same is true of several ‘freelancers’ who have not worked for months. After exhaustive research there is zero evidence that well over a dozen of those named were working at the time. PR staff for universities, freelance graphic designers, marketing staff—even a photographer at a local university - many of these people have been included on the basis of nothing but Hamas wanting to create a fake narrative.

The case of Salam Mema

There is another CPJ rule that CPJ has broken with at least half of the 70 journalists named. The CPJ are not meant to include anyone who is acting on behalf of militant groups. Yet at least 35 of the journalists named are working directly for terrorist groups.<sup>75</sup>

How does CPJ define a journalist?

CPJ defines journalists as people who cover news or comment on public affairs through any medium – including in print, online, via broadcast media, or photographs and video. We take up cases involving staff journalists and freelancers. We do not include journalists if there is evidence that they were acting on behalf of militant groups or serving in a military capacity at the time of their deaths.

The CPJ even openly admit that many of the names included in their ‘journalist’ list work for channels ‘associated’ with Hamas or Islamic Jihad, but that does not seem to bother them at all. In addition, they only appear to name (or be aware of) some of the affiliated groups, while appearing to be oblivious to others.

For example – they reference Salam Mema as the head of the ‘Journalists Committee at the Palestinian Media Assembly’.

Salam Mema, a 32-year-old freelance Palestinian journalist and head of the Women Journalists Committee at the Palestinian Media Assembly, an organization committed to advancing media work for Palestinian journalists, was killed when her home in the Jabalia camp, situated in the northern Gaza Strip, was hit by an Israeli airstrike, according to the Palestinian Journalists Syndicate, the Palestinian Authority’s official news agency, Wafa, and the coalition Women In Journalism.

The Palestinian Media Assembly is an Islamic Jihad outfit.<sup>76 77 78</sup> Salam Mema was a key agent for a proscribed terrorist group and the CPJ are passing her off as some type of respectable media union representative.

The case of Ahmed Shehab

An even stronger example of the issues with the CPJ list is the journalist Ahmed Shehab'.<sup>79</sup>

Shehab was killed in a strike on his uncle's (possibly cousin) home. Ahmed worked for the 'Voice of the Prisoners' radio. Evidence was found on his FB profile confirming this – along with mentions of his name on the FB page of the radio channel.<sup>80 81</sup>

Voice of the Prisoners radio is an Islamic Jihad outfit, set up in 2009.<sup>82 83</sup> But Ahmed Shehab's uncle / cousin is even more notable. This statement was released by Palestine Today TV (Islamic Jihad).

'Commander Abd al-Rahman Rabie Abd al-Rahman Shihab' "Abu Bilal" had been a prisoner in Israeli jails for 23 years having been arrested as an IJ terrorist in 1988.<sup>84</sup> Released as part of the Shalit deal in 2011. He was a leader in the Islamic Jihad.<sup>85</sup> He founded an Islamic military strategic think tank (the Atlas centre for Research and Studies).<sup>86</sup>

Islamic Jihad even put out a statement confirming this when he was killed.

This means that the CPJ:

- Is not identifying people who are working for proscribed terrorist groups.
- Including as journalists those who died while not actively working in journalism.
- Ignoring vitally important circumstances related the incident

All this information was publicly available.

Worse still, the CPJ MUST have known this, because both of the Shehab's are included in the list presented by Hamas / PJS.

Killed by an airstrike that targeted his house in Gaza	Jabalia	11/10/2023	Director General of Atlas center for studies	Media worker	M	55	Abdul Rahman Rabee Shihab	.11
Killed by an airstrike that targeted his house in Jabalia	Jabalia refugee camp	12/10/2023	Prisoners voice radio	Journalist	M	42	Ahmad Abdulrahman Shihab	.12

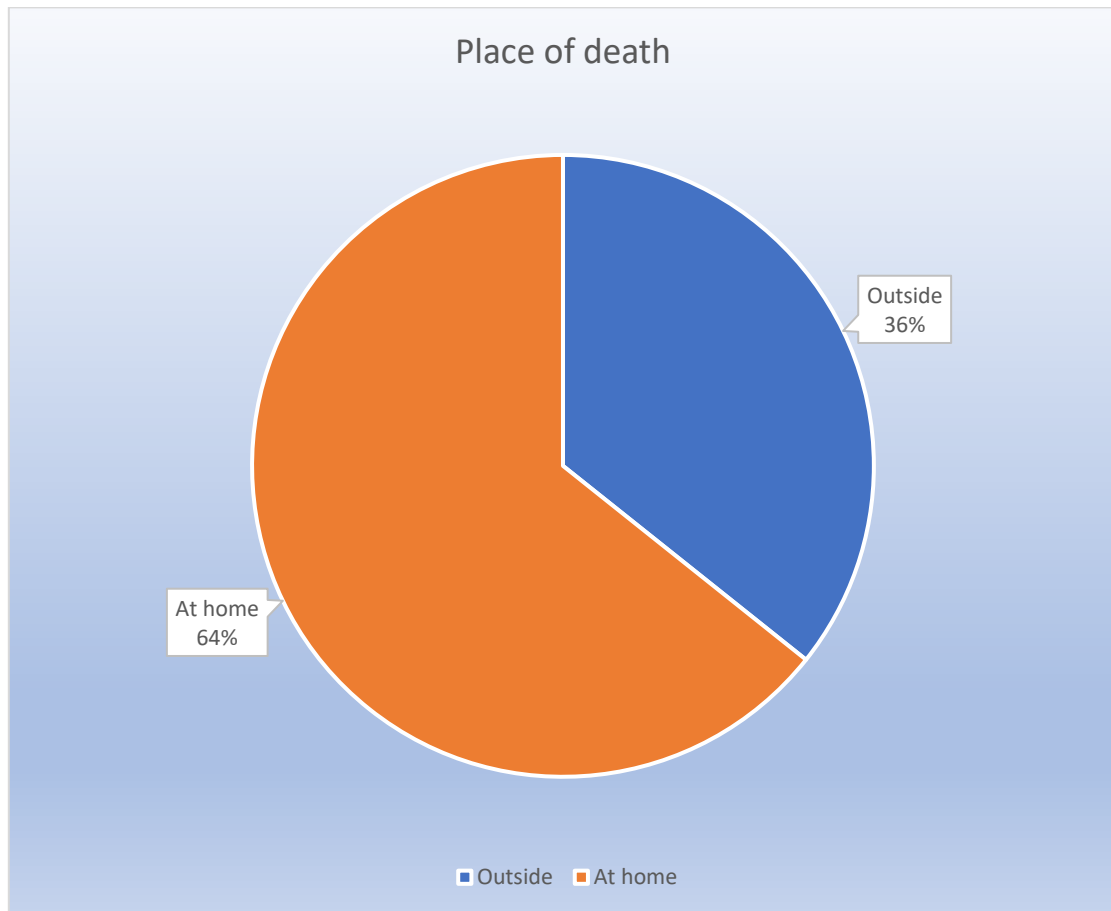

Which in turn means the CPJ must have looked at – and discounted Abdel Rahman as a journalist – choosing only to leave Ahmed on their list. They must have been aware, as they wrote that entry that Ahmed died alongside an Islamic Jihad commander.

The CPJ are including people who have not been killed because of their journalism. This entry is a direct breach of the CPJ's own guidelines.

Does the “unconfirmed” list include journalists who die from other causes like illness, natural disasters or accidents?

No, we do not include cases where journalists are clearly not killed for their journalism.

The Shihab case brings to light another issue. At least 45 of the 70 people named in the CPJ list died at home. Only 25 of those on the CPJ list could possibly (and some didn't) have died whilst reporting. (Appendix B).

It is also worth remembering that 6 of the 25 (Salehi, Lavi, Jarghoun, Shamalkh, Al-Tawel, and Sobh) all died in the first three chaotic days. Which means between October 11 and January 4 a maximum of 19 'journalists' could have died in the field. Given how little we know – including the likelihood some may even have died with a gun in their hands – this presents a very different picture from the one CPJ are promoting.

It was shown in the cases of Ahmed Shehab and Assad Shamalkh that not only did they both work for a proscribed terrorist group, but that family members at home were also involved with terror groups. Shehab was a leader of the IJ and Shamalkh's brother presented himself carrying weapons. Which means these deaths have nothing to do with journalism.

This raises serious questions about the entire CPJ methodology. It also raises questions about the motivations of the CPJ editors. It appears that like Hamas it is in the interest of the CPJ to push these numbers as high as possible.

Of the list of 70 CPJ journalists, approximately 35 out of the 70 work directly to promote proscribed groups (Al Aqsa, Palestine Today, Voice of Prisoners, Mithaq Media, QNN). Almost all of these (approximately 30/35) died at home. It becomes possible (indeed likely) that other family members are involved with the terror groups as well.

Even on top of the known propagandist media of the terror outfits, other media channels also actively promoted and celebrated violence. These include 'Istiklal' where Mohamed Abu Huwaidi worked; 'Al-Majdat' where Shaima al-Jazar worked; 'Al-Resalah' where Mohammed Labad worked and 'Radio Shabab' where Mohammed Ali worked. A few examples are provided in the footnotes – dozens more are available on request.<sup>87 88 89 90</sup> These are all 'journalists' on the CPJ list.

Which means that even if CPJ wish to defend the indefensible (to state that someone working for Hamas can still be a journalist) there is no way CPJ can say journalism had anything to do with the cause of death.

The case of Mohamed Ayash

Mohamed Ayash is number 56 on the CPJ list. He was killed at home on November 23. This is a post of Ayash celebrating the terrorist attack in Hadera on March 27 2022.<sup>91</sup>

The case of Hassuna Salim

Who and what are the CPJ protecting? Hassuna Aslim was killed at home on December 1. The CPJ call him a freelancer.

Hassouneh Salim

Salim, a Palestinian freelance photojournalist, was killed in an Israeli airstrike on the Bureij refugee camp in central Gaza, along with his colleague and friend Sari Mansour, according to the Amman-based news outlet Roya News, Al-Jazeera, and the Palestinian Journalists' Syndicate.

According to other sources he had worked for QNN for several years.<sup>95</sup> This is reinforced by the fact he was killed alongside the QNN Director Sari Mansour.<sup>96</sup>

Salim was active across several social media platforms and following his FB page also leads to links to his Telegram Channel.<sup>97</sup> <sup>98</sup> Salim was highly active on his Telegram channel on the morning of October 7. There were 100s of posts.

This was a short video that he posted. It shows a group of terrorists entering a room in which a massacre had taken place. A family can be seen slaughtered on the floor. The comment in Arabic is about the massacre and the flood of laughing emojis that accompany this post are his own.<sup>99</sup>

He also posted this celebration, as 1000s of rockets were fired at civilian homes in Israel.

More importantly at 6:36am he posted a directive from Islamic Jihad – that called upon everyone with a weapon to pick up their gun and fight.<sup>100</sup> Messages such as these sent 100s of armed ‘civilians’ across into Israel to help Hamas rape and murder.

In the name of God, the most gracious, the most merciful
Kill them, may God punish them at your hands and disgrace them, and grant you victory over them, and heal the hearts of a believing people.
Great truth of God
Urgent and brief statement
How do you know what Gaza is?
O sons of our heroic people
It is time for all Palestinians to rise like a phoenix from under the rubble.
We declare a state of general mobilization and the start of an immediate attack from every location on the occupation forces and their settlers.
What is urgently needed now:
1. Our lone wolves must act immediately and urgently, now and before anything else
2. All fighters must close ranks and go out to occupy with ambushes of bullets and blessed explosive devices
3. All free and honorable citizens must go out in huge and massive marches and raise the voice of God is Great in all fields.
4. All owners of shops and homes located near occupation checkpoints and settlements must withdraw their recording devices and turn off their cameras immediately.
5. For everyone who owns a weapon and does not use it to defend religion and the country, it is time for you to emerge as a man and perform your duty of honor and manhood.
We told you before that they will pass like a thread from the sun
Oh, the pulse of our hearts, our loved ones, and the sparkle of our eyes, come out to the checkpoints and pass like the wind through the heart of the settlements.
This time is a time of pride, dignity, and victory, with God's help
Haven't your faces become worse, O sons of Judaism?
May your Sabbath and Eid be bad, descendants of monkeys and pigs-
Oh God, protect our men in Gaza, the West Bank, and in every location
Allahu Akbar Allahu Akbar Allahu Akbar
The victory comes only from God
Your brothers, the Lions' Den groups

The case of Hossam Mubarak

Hossam Mubarak is also listed as a ‘journalist’, although he also works directly for a Hamas channel (Al Aqsa Radio). From the description it is strongly suggested he died at home.<sup>101</sup> His Facebook is relatively private (although enough pro-Hamas material was still found to be included in the directory below). He even gives praise to Sheikh Yassin each year.

But some of his close family members are also clear about their close affiliation to Hamas.<sup>102 103</sup>

The case of Ayat Khadura

And the logic does not just hold for those publicly working for terrorist organisations. Ayat Khadura also died at home. In 2019 she celebrated the return of her father (or her uncle) who had been a prisoner in Israel for 14 years.

She is referring to Saleh Ayub Khadura from the Islamic Jihad.<sup>104</sup> This is in him on his return in 2019.<sup>105</sup>

The case of Mohammed Al Jaja

Mohammed Al Jaja was killed at home on 5 November, this is what he posted on his timeline on 2 June 2021 about his cousin who died in an accidental explosion:<sup>108</sup>

His cousin was a Hamas terrorist.<sup>109</sup> This is his cousin – and Al Jaja’s response to the post of mourning is underneath:<sup>110</sup>

This is an image of his cousin – not him. The respectful response is his. But it does raise questions about how close to his household Hamas may have been.

The case of Yasser Abu Namous

And it goes on. This is the CPJ entry for Yasser Namous. It lists three sources but none of the three sources give his place of work as Al-Sahel media, so we are left guessing about where CPJ got this. His own FB page gives another place of work entirely.<sup>111</sup>

October 27, 2023

Yasser Abu Namous

Palestinian journalist Yasser Abu Namous of Al-Sahel media organization was killed in a strike on his family home in Khan Yunis, Gaza, according to the Palestinian Authority's official news agency Wafa, Al-Jazeera, and the Hamas-affiliated Al-Quds network.

His IG has only 2 or 3 posts from the last 3 years<sup>112</sup> In August 2023, on the occasion of the birthday of the Hamas leader Muhammad Al-Deif, Namous posted this love letter:<sup>113</sup>

The case of Ahmed Al Qara

One other CPJ example worthy of note is for Ahmed Al Qara:

November 10, 2023

Ahmed Al-Qara

Al-Qara, a photojournalist who worked for Al-Aqsa University and was also a freelancer, was killed in a strike at the entrance of Khuza'a town, east of the southern city of Khan Yunis, according to the Palestinian Journalists' Syndicate and the Cairo-based Al-Dostor newspaper.

Two sources are listed. The Al Dostor Newspaper:<sup>116</sup>

Dozens of Palestinian citizens were martyred today, Friday, including Al-Aqsa University photographer Ahmed Al-Qara, after bombing the entrance to the town of Khuza'a, east of Khan Yunis, south of the Gaza Strip

<sup>115</sup> https://palinfo-com.translate.google/news/2023/07/16/843783/?\_x\_tr\_sl=ar&\_x\_tr\_tl=en&\_x\_tr\_hl=en&\_x\_tr\_pto=sc

And the PJS:

Neither of the sources reference ‘freelancing’. It appears as if the CPJ have used artistic licence (or a source they are hiding) to shape what is factual – that he was a photographer working in PR for a university – in an attempt to make him look like a journalist working in the field (as would be the wish of Hamas).

A simple look at his social media tells you he works in PR (sometimes with a camera) at the university – as do all of his posts on FB and Instagram.<sup>117 118</sup> These types of entries in the list are dishonest.

On his FB, there is also this notice mourning the loss of his brother Abdullah in 2010:

This is an image of his brother Abdullah:<sup>119</sup>

<sup>117</sup> <https://www.facebook.com/ahqarra>

In one example the CPJ received some of their information directly from a media worker in Gaza by the name of Ziad Almokayyed,

November 18, 2023

Abdelhalim Awad

A Palestinian media worker and driver for the Hamas-affiliated Al-Aqsa TV, Awad was killed in a strike on his home in the Gaza Strip, according to the London-based Al-Ghad TV, the Palestinian Journalists' Syndicate, and the Beirut-based press freedom group SKeyes. Awad had been working full-time since the beginning of the war in Khan Yunis and had left to visit his family last week, his colleague Ziad AlMokayyed told CPJ via messaging app.

Which means they are taking some of their information from the person who posted this on his social media page:<sup>120</sup>

This post from Al Mokayyed celebrates the terrorist attack in Jerusalem on 27 January in which seven Israelis were murdered.<sup>121</sup>

Worse still. If Al Mokayyed had been killed in a strike during this conflict– the CPJ would add him to their list, pretend he is a holier-than-thou journalist, and use his death to demonise and delegitimise Israel.

At times this CPJ blindness is even more apparent. For example, they link to the FB page of Abdallah Alwan as part of their update on him.

On 10, 2020, according to his outlet Alwan, the Hamas-affiliated Al-Naba, the local Palestinian newspaper Al-Hadath, and Jordan's Amman-based Roya TV. In his last Facebook post on December 17, Alwan wrote that "On every morning, we say that last night was the worst night in the war... All days are worse than each other. This briefly describes the war." On November 30, Alwan posted photos of the damage on his home because of Israeli bombing, saying two of his nieces were killed in the strikes.

Had they continued to look at his FB account they may have seen him celebrating the terror attack in Tel Aviv in April 2022 in which three civilians were murdered in a bar.<sup>122</sup>

The CPJ list and methodology appears to be amateur beyond all comprehension. The CPJ continually break their own guidelines. They rely almost completely on data provided by proscribed terrorist groups. Independent analysis of social media posts does not seem to have been undertaken at all.

The NGO bias

As is often the case with NGOs like CPJ the 'who we are' page only heightens concerns about bias. The CPJ MENA program coordinator is Sherif Mansour.<sup>123</sup> His FB states he is from Egypt.<sup>124</sup> On his timeline he has shared posts such as these. A video which ends with the words 'we will return':<sup>125</sup>

He has shared other anti-Zionist articles such as this one:<sup>126</sup>

<sup>123</sup> <https://cpj.org/about/staff/>

<sup>124</sup> <https://www.facebook.com/sherifmnsour>

And posts support for Ilhan Omar which relies on fringe anti-Zionist Jews.<sup>127</sup>

None of this has anything to do with the freedom of journalists. And given Israel is by far the freest nation in MENA, it is difficult to understand Mansour's obvious hostility to the Jewish state through the lens of someone *only* interested in press freedom.<sup>128</sup>

This tweet comes from the CPJ's MENA researcher Mohamed Mandour (another formerly from Egypt).<sup>129 130</sup>

<sup>127</sup><https://www.facebook.com/sherifmnsour/posts/pfbid0VMCfuEhGzKcQn19mRMwrrpCUTLBRuR1jDCSUxw2SJgQsL7jiDKVXFkEd5L7QSumyl>

<sup>129</sup> https://twitter.com/m\_medhaat/status/1720994659567063125

CPJ also boast two MENA Correspondents, one based in Lebanon, the other a Palestinian in East Jerusalem. There is no attempt at balance at all.

This one-sided vision helps explain the bias in the CPJ output. And this analysis suggests none of the work of the CPJ can be taken seriously.

The Journalist Directory

There is no cherry picking involved in this research. All the names were searched for – and all of those found included in the research.<sup>131 132 133</sup>

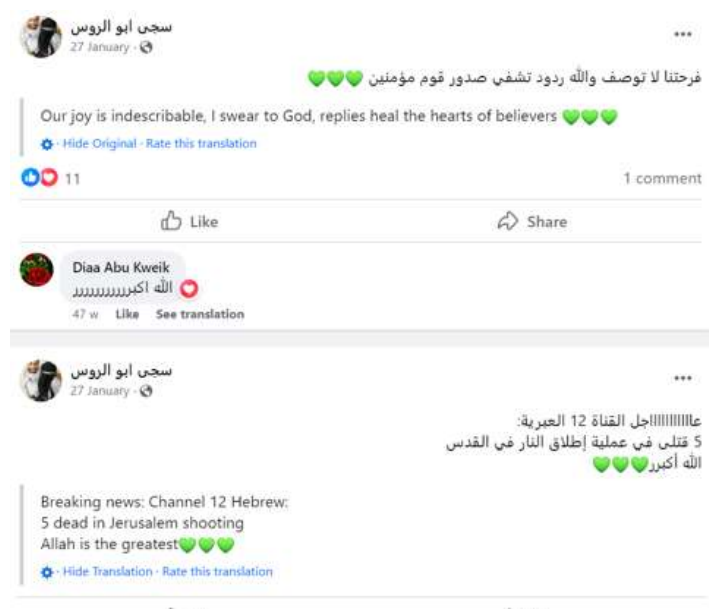

Not all accounts are accessible. Some are completely private – or only hold a small collection of posts. 26 accounts in total needed to be discounted for this reason. This left 74 accounts that had enough material to be checked. This provides a large enough sample – being 69% of the total number of accounts.

A search was made for definitive and visible support for terrorism against civilians. A single post was not enough to warrant entry. Accidental inclusion was avoided by requiring more than one related post.

The results are therefore conservative estimates. Even those who could be fairly assumed to support terrorist activity against civilians were discounted for lack of evidence.

For example, the account for ‘Sari Mansour’ was deactivated. (Mansour is on both the Hamas and CPJ lists). Yet the FB account of his wife is full of praise and celebration for deadly terrorist attacks on innocent civilians.<sup>134</sup>

Two examples: Celebrating January 27 terror attack in Jerusalem.<sup>135</sup>

<sup>131</sup> <https://www.almamlakatv.com/news/132579-101-غزة-على-الإسرائيلي-العدوان-منذ-بدء-الصحفيين-منذ-بدء-العدوان-الإسرائيلي-على-غزة>

Celebrating the murder of the British / Israeli Dee family on 7 April.<sup>136</sup>

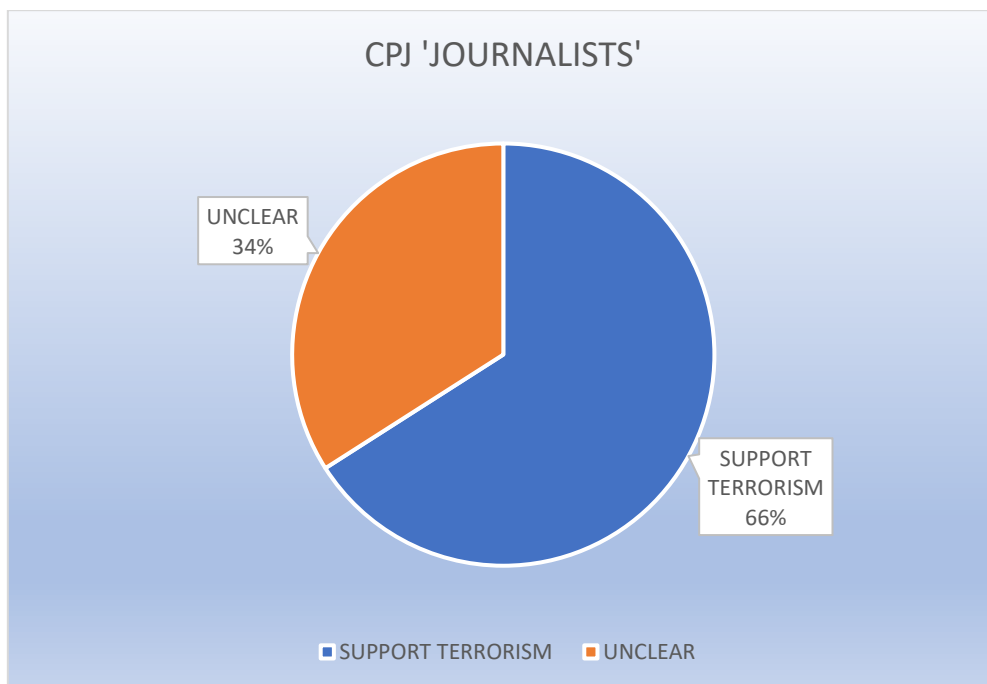

Given the attitude of his wife, it is a fair assumption to suggest he was also in favour, but he has been excluded.

Finally, people who continually post pro-terrorist material find themselves banned and have their accounts deleted. Therefore, expulsions and account deletions over support for terrorism can place someone beyond the reach of this research.

For all these reasons the conservative nature of these findings cannot be overstated.

Support for the murder of innocent civilians was found in 54 out of the 74 accounts (73%). On the CPJ list 31 out of the visible 47 accounts (66%) visibly supported the murder of innocent civilians.

All the evidence is presented in the directory below.

الاحتلال ارتكب حماقته بالأمس في # جنين واعتقد وأهما أن جنين وحدها، فجاءه الرد السريع من بطل # القدس المقاوم خيرى علقم، ليثبت أن فلسطين واحدة موحدة من بحرها إلى نهريها، ولا حل إلا بزوال الاحتلال عن كامل تراب فلسطين
رحم الله شهيد القدس المنتقم لدماء شهداء ❤️

Translated from Arabic by Google

The occupation committed its foolishness yesterday in # جنين and deludedly believed that Jenin was alone, so a quick response came from the hero of # القدس the resistance fighter Khairy Alqam, to prove that Palestine is one, united from its sea to its river, and there is no solution except for the occupation to be removed from the entire territory of Palestine.
May God have mercy on the martyr of Jerusalem who avenged the blood of the martyrs ❤️

رغم الرصاصات التي أصابته ظل يقاتل حتى النفس الأخير..
إنه مشهد للتاريخ إنه موقف تهتز له الأبدان.
#عدي_التميمي

Despite of the bullets he got, he kept on fighting until the last breath..
It's a scene for history it's a chilling situation.

A moment of realization !!

H. Basis : nose surgery A response to the assassination of Islamic Jihad leaders in Gaza weeks ago

And this brings us back to declaring shame. Rory said a while ago: the response to the assassination of the leaders is not over yet!

تسلم الأيادي التي تطلق النار نحو الغاصب فتصيب، وهذا الذي جرى اليوم الإثنين 27-2023 في أريحا نفسه تكرر بالأمس في حوارة نابلس، وسيستمر العمل المقاوم ضد المحتل حتى يرحل، وعلى الاحتلال أن يعي الأمر على حقيقته؛

Hand over the hands that shoot at the usurper and are hit, and what happened today, Monday 2/27/2023 in Jericho, was repeated yesterday in Hawara Nablus, and the resistance work against the occupier will continue until he leaves, and the occupation must be aware of the matter for what it is;

جميل ان يعيش الكيان الصهيوني حالة خوف ورعب وإرباك لأيام أخرى وهو يشكل حالة استنزاف لقدراته وجيشه وميزانيته. على المقاومة ان تمنح الغرضة التي يسعى اليها ، وعلى المقاومة التريث قليلا فالايام القادمة كفيلة بتحقيق ما يريد.

Translated from Arabic by Google

It is nice for the Zionist entity to live in a state of fear, terror, and confusion for more days, as it constitutes a state of exhaustion on its capabilities, its army, and its budget. The resistance must give him the opportunity he seeks, and the resistance must wait a little, as the coming days will be enough to achieve what he wants.

Celebrating October 7.<sup>254</sup>

Ala'a Taher ALhasanat
7 October · 🌐

دمهم السايح فوق بعض في الغرف المحصنة .. القدرة والسيطرة .. الجنود المسجونين لشوارع غزة .. جياتهم وهي
جوة غزة وعليها شبانا بهتفوا
أقسم بالله مشاهد ولا بالخيال.. العقل لا يستوعبها
يا الله ناصر المستضعفين حمداً لله أن كتبت لنا أن نشهد
هذه اللحظة
ثبتهم يارب.. نستودعك أياهم فأحفظهم بحفظك

Their blood is above each other in the vaulted rooms . Power and control . Soldiers drawn to the streets of Gaza. Them pockets and shes
Gaza atmosphere and our youth are cheering on it
I swear to God it's scenes and not imagination.. The mind can't comprehend it
O Allah, the supporter of the weak, thank Allah that you have written us to witness
This very moment
Keep them firm oh Lord.. We entrust them to you, so keep them safe.

أضاءت السماء واكتمل هلال الفخر والعزة والكرامة بثوار غزة والقدس والضفة وال48 نلتصر بوحدتنا واليوم يشهد العالم وحدتنا وقوتنا وعزيمتنا التي أعادت بوصلتنا الوطنية، يقول تعالى ( إِنَّا لَنَنصُرُ رُسُلَنَا وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَيَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْأَشْهَادُ )

The sky lit up and the crescent of pride, glory and dignity was completed by the revolutionaries of Gaza, Jerusalem and the West Bank and 48 we triumph in our unity and today the world witnesses our unity, strength and determination that restored our national compass, says the Almighty (We will surely help our messengers and those who believe in the life of this world and on the day of the witnesses)

Support This Research:

This research is fully independent. I am not paid or sponsored by any political group or communal organisation. I believe this independence is important and adds to the integrity of the work.

I have been researching the Israel /Arab conflict since 1990 and fighting the delegitimisation campaign since 2000. For several years I have also been publicly combatting rising antisemitism.

This work can and does make a difference. I have received awards from both the Algemeiner (as one of their 'J100') and from the media watchdog CAMERA ('Portrait in Courage').<sup>358 359</sup>

For years my research has been creating headlines across the globe:

The support I receive makes much of what I do possible. I simply could not do it without it.

The delegitimisation campaign against Israel and the rise of antisemitism are linked. October 7 changed the world. We *MUST* stand up and we *HAVE TO* be there to witness, report, expose and fight it.

If you can, please consider donating. Either a single donation, or if you can, a monthly contribution. Every amount is truly appreciated. Research such as this is intensive, and at times expensive. We must shine a light into the shadows and expose the truth.

Support can be given through my PayPal donation page.<sup>360</sup> I have also opened a Patreon page.<sup>361</sup>

APPENDIX A - Social media account tracing

1. Mohamed Salehi. A post of mourning from a friend provided a link to the account - which carries the same profile picture everyone had been sharing.<sup>362</sup> A second account was also found by the same method.<sup>363</sup>
2. Ibrahim Lavi. He does use a variation of his own name on his accounts, but a mourning post from a FB friend confirmed the account was his.<sup>364</sup> His own FB account gives the account of his IG account.<sup>365</sup> And as he used the same account name for both FB and IG, it was easy to locate his account on X.<sup>366</sup>
3. Mohamed Jarghoun. A post of mourning from a friend of Mohamed Jarghoun provided the link to his Facebook account.<sup>367</sup> Like many people with multiple accounts, Jarghoun makes friends with his other accounts.
4. Asaad Shamalkh. Several posts of mourning from friends provided a link to his account.<sup>368</sup> Images on the account confirmed this is the same person.
5. Anas Abu Shamala. A post of mourning from a friend provided a link to the account.<sup>369</sup> The account is in his name and images on the account confirmed the identity.
6. Hisham Al-Nawajha. A post of mourning from a friend provided a link to the account.<sup>370</sup> The account is in his name and images on the account confirmed the identity.
7. Mohamed Abu Rizq. Standard FB search led to account. Images on account matched those being shared. A post of mourning from a friend confirmed the identity.<sup>371</sup>
8. Saeed Al-Tawel. Standard FB search led to account. Images on account matched those being shared. A post of mourning from a friend confirmed the identity.<sup>372</sup> As he used his own name search revealed other FB accounts, as well as links to his Instagram account.<sup>373 374 375</sup>
